It is thus imperative for Tea Board to build a prosperous and sustainable small tea sector by promoting and supporting member-owned Producer Organizations that enable small tea growers to move to a higher plane through efficient, cost-effective and sustainable resource use and realize higher returns for their produce.

2. The primary objective of federating the SHGs and moving them higher up the value chain through FPO formation is to enhance production, productivity, profitability of the small growers (in the participating SHGs) and quality of tea produced in various tea growing regions across the country. The objective for FPO formation is aimed towards

   1. Strengthening the capacity of the STGs through agricultural best practices for enhanced productivity
   2. Ensuring access to and usage of quality inputs and extension services for quality production
   3. Facilitating setting up of common infrastructure for value addition, minimizing losses across the supply chain and reduce the influence of intermediaries in the supply chain
   4. Enabling access to fair and remunerative markets including linkage of producer groups to marketing opportunities through market aggregators

3. The Farmers Producers' Organisation can be registered as a society/ cooperative society/ producer company or any other legal entity which provides for sharing of profits / benefits amongst the grower members.

4. The SHG being an informal body, it shall have a compulsory stipulation of registering as a Farmers Producers organization under a legal provision on the inclusion of more than 20 members.

5. FPOs may be federated in any of the following structures:

   1. Two or more SHGs with a total of more than 20 members coming together to form an FPO
   2. A single SHG with more than 20 members.
   3. A single SHG with more than 20 members and additional individual small tea growers having Tea Board identification card / UIN
   4. Multiple SHGs with additional individual small tea growers having Tea Board identification card / UIN

6. Process for FPO formation - The creation of farmer producer organization involves multiple steps ranging from its inception, feasibility study and business planning, handholding in incorporation, designing the service model and structure, assistance in training the members so as to enable knowledge / skills dissemination amongst member small growers and finally monitoring and evaluation. This is a multi-year process normally ranging from 24-36 months. The existing SHGs and those to be formed by the Tea Board are to be federated into FPOs. The various steps involved in FPO formation are outlined below:

7. Cluster identification - Cluster areas are to be selected and each cluster may comprise of more than one SHG. Cluster should be chosen in a way to ensure that STGs are located in contiguous/ nearby villages of a particular district so as to get the benefits of collectivization in terms of shared infrastructure, knowledge sharing and others.

8. Feasibility study - The feasibility study should broadly cover the aspects such as technical, financial, socio-cultural, availability of resources and various linkages which might be instrumental in making the FPO sustainable in the long run. The objective of the feasibility study is to establish a case for promotion of FPCs in the prevailing specific regional environmental context of the FPOs. The Feasibility Study Report needs to be supplemented with a logical business plan which can be used by the FPO as a bankable document for incorporation of the company and securing bank finance at a later stage.

9. Baseline Assessment - After the feasibility is established, Baseline Assessment is to be carried out which will help in generating the data related to the current situation of the STGs. Baseline assessment will broadly cover a variety of factors to identify the potential interventions required to make the FPOs sustainable, to plan development and business plans. Objective of this assessment is to ascertain the current situation and set up metrics based on which the targets can be set and measured to understand the change over a period of time.

10. Business Planning - Next phase of this exercise is designing a business plan for the proposed FPO. This will broadly include projection of its financials in terms of profit and loss statement, cash flow and balance sheet. The underlying assumptions which will be used for projection need to be articulated during this phase so as to see the financial viability of the business model and its future potential. Together with the feasibility study report and the baseline exercise, the business plan establishes not only the technical and financial viability of the proposed FPO but also will act as a document for checking the projected milestones in future. The financial institutions may bank on this document for financing and this document can act as an indicative guide to track the progress of the FPO(s) based on actual v/s estimated analysis.

11. Mobilization of Farmers - After the business planning is done, the SHGs need to be federated to form FPOs. Mobilization of small growers should be done with a variety of communication aids like pamphlets, documentary movies, posters, regular village-level meetings, proper vision development of promoter farmer-members. Especially the SHGs will play a lead role in creating awareness amongst the member growers regarding the potential benefits of a FPO and how it can help them move up the value chain.

12. Organizing and Formalizing - SHGs in an aggregated cluster together form FPOs. Unlike the SHGS which are registered under the Cooperative Act, FPOs can be registered under the Producer Company provision under the Companies Act. Tea Board might take the help of a legal or other agency in handholding the FPO to get registered under the Company’s Act and such administrative cost will be borne from the scheme funds.

13. Resource Mobilization - Once the FPO is incorporated, the organization structure of the proposed FPO with roles and responsibilities across levels need to be clearly articulated. An illustrative organization structure along with the service model for an FPO is shown below. This is the phase when the resources need to be hired, trained so as to run the FPO smoothly after the initial handholding phase. Basis the business plan document, the FPO can approach various financing agencies and mobilize the resources for hiring/purchasing and developing various resources.

14. Service Model - The typical services that a FPO needs to provide include the various aspects of cultivation (field inputs, cultivation techniques and processing knowhow in factory) along with helping them in getting market access. In addition, the FPO should allow the member SHGs (or the member small growers) to use the common infrastructure for transportation, weighing, processing, packaging, value addition, storage and any other logistics facilities which are essential in the tea value chain. Apart from that the FPO should also act as agents for knowledge dissemination about various aspects of tea cultivation, processing and marketing. The services can be categorized under the following broad head such as

1. Technical Services
2. Facilities / Input Provider
3. Financial Support
4. Marketing Support

15. Management Systems Development - There has to be provision for developing the management information systems (MIS) and designing the standard operating procedures for designing the MIS. MIS is instrumental in maintaining operational and financial data pertaining to operations of the FPO.

16. Training the FPO Governing Members and Commencement of Business Operations -
Training the governing members of the FPO so as to ensure smooth operations of the FPO is instrumental as it will ensure smooth knowledge transition / transfer to the member STGs in the participating SHGs. Post the training of the FPO governing members, various aspects of the business operations such as production, processing, marketing and financial service activities of a FPO need to be started.

17. Monitoring and Evaluation – This includes periodic assessment of performance of various stakeholders such as the STGs, governing members of the FPOs and various service providers. Periodic monitoring and assessment will enable assessment of how much progress the FPOs have achieved vis-a-vis the targets set in the business plan and help the FPOs to reflect using Institutional Maturity Index to understand various areas of improvement.

18. An illustrative organization structure along with the service model for an FPO is shown below:
19. For SHGs to be federated to FPOs, application will have to be submitted jointly by the SGGs to the nearest field Office of the Board. For a single existing SHG aiming to form FPO the SHG can submit an application. The following should be attached with the application form:

1 First Step: Concept Proposal on Research – The research proposals received from various institutes as per the mandate of Tea Board will be evaluated by a Screening Committee having experts from diverse field of tea science and industry. Based upon the screening and recommendations of the committee, full projects will be asked to submit from successfully qualified PIs for further screening and integration in the coordinated projects under each group.
2. Second Step: Full Project Proposal – The full proposals will further be evaluated by a committee of subject specialists under each category for its subsequent inclusion in the coordinated project.

The recommendations of TRLC will be communicated to PIs for compliance. Before each TRLC, Action Taken Report (ATR) will be asked from the PIs to check their compliance of the recommendations of the previous TRLC and whether progress made accordingly. Further, after one year of the initiation of the project, one independent REC will review the performance to ensure that the projects are on right direction according to the objectives.

2. Financial: The fund is to be released on yearly basis as per projected outlay through MoU between the Tea Board and the respective Research Institute where the project will be carried out. Every requisition for fund release of Plan projects will be sent to the Tea Board along with the progress/achievements made according to the objectives defined, details of expenditure incurred under each sanctioned head and fund Utilization Certificate (UC) as per GFR norms. Non-submission of UC on time as proposed will lead to discontinuation of the subsequent fund release. Any unspent balance will be adjusted with the next fund release. The terms and conditions laid under GFR for release of such fund will be applicable. The PIs/Institutes are required to abide by the following terms and conditions:

(a) Tea Board will have the right to modify/scrap any component of the project which will not be found progressing satisfactorily according to its panel of experts at any time.

(b) Both physical and financial audit on the progress of the project components will be done by the Tea Board annually.

(c) In the unforeseen event of discontinuation by the PI, the Co-PI will assume the responsibility for completion of the project and the same has to be intimated to the Directorate of Tea Research, Tea Board of India immediately.
